SERIES: I'M NOT ANGRY!
Part 3: Flirting With Anger

"You have heard that the Law of Moses says, 'Do not murder. If you commit murder, you are subject to judgment.' [22]But I say, if you are even angry with someone, you are subject to judgment! If you call someone an idiot, you are in danger of being brought before the court. And if you curse someone, you are in danger of the fires of hell. [23]So if you are presenting a sacrifice at the altar in the Temple and you suddenly remember that someone has something against you, [24]leave your sacrifice there at the altar. Go and be reconciled to that person. Then come and offer your sacrifice to God." Matthew 5:21-24

Three actions Jesus give us to nurture and protect healthy relationships with each other.

STOP ALL ANGER AND HATRED TOWARD EACH OTHER

I. _____ to let your anger _____

or to _____ a grudge

Matthew 5:21-22

"And don't sin by letting anger control you. Don't let the sun go down while you are still angry, [27]for anger gives a foothold to the devil." Ephesians 4:26-27

"If another believer sins against you, go privately and point out the offense. If the other person listens and confesses it, you have won that person back." Matthew 18:15

Notes:

Notes:

II. _____ from flippantly

_____ another person

“If you call someone an idiot, you are in danger of being brought before the high council.” Matthew 5:22b

III. _____ all verbal _____

“And if you curse someone, you are in danger of the fires of hell.” Matthew 5:22c

“And do not bring sorrow to God’s Holy Spirit by the way you live. Remember, He has identified you as His own, guaranteeing that you will be saved on the day of redemption. [31]Get rid of all bitterness, rage, anger, harsh words, and slander, as well as all types of evil behavior. [32]Instead, be kind to each other, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, just as God through Christ has forgiven you.” Ephesians 4:30-32
